HISTORY

In the year September 1989, Brother Paul Wang from Sabah visited Korea to witness personally the tremendous spirit of prayer prevailing in the churches in Korea. Inspired, he established Praise Mountain, Kokol in 1991. On the 6th December 1992, it was dedicated to the Lord as one of the many mountain facilities in Sabah, providing a place for Christians to “come aside to a quiet place and rest a while” (Mark 6:31) Situated 750 meters above sea level, the weather at Praise Mountain is cool all year round and the wilderness scenery makes it an ideal spot for relaxation. On a clear day, capture a view of Mt. Kinabalu towering 4095 meters over the mist-covered valleys.

FACILITIES

The double storey bungalow has a large living room, a covered open deck, a spacious dining area, a BBQ area and a kitchen equipped with utensils. Praise Mountain also has a cemented area that can be used as a court for Badminton, Sepak Takraw, Volleyball, or Basketball. Landscaped with a variety of fruit trees, flowers and fish pond, guest are encouraged to enjoy the serenity of country living however “take nothing but photographs and leave nothing but footprints.” Mountain springs provides fresh water however guest are encouraged to conserve water.

GETTING THERE (<https://goo.gl/maps/aVRdpBMZNIMwWvCL8>)

Praise Mountain is located about 25 km from Kota Kinabalu (about half an hour's drive away from Likas). These are 2 routes to reach Praise Mountain Retreat Centre:

OPTON 1: From Menggatal Town – Traditional Route

On Jalan Tuaran heading north, take the first right turn to Jalan Kokol after Menggatal Town. Passing the Menggatal Government Clinic on your left, keep on the main road at all times bearing right. Head to the summit of Kokol hills approximately 12 km on tarmac road, passing Kg. Kokol. The center is on the left hand side of the road before Kg. Sinangang.

OPTON 2: From Kiansom Road – Adventurous Route

Travel to the end of Kiansom Road passing Kg. Kionsom. Just after crossing a river at Kg. Kobuni, turn left on Jalan Kobuni traversing along a steep hill on partly sealed road to Kg. Bambang Baru. At the T-junction, turn left towards Kg. Sinangang. Travel on the ridge for 3.5km. The center will be on the right hand side of the road.
